

CATERING VOLUNTEER

Volunteers will work alongside the catering team helping prepare mealtimes for patients, families and staff. Volunteers may also assist with catering for in-house events such as theme meals, remembrance services, team meetings or open days. This is an energetic role which involves spending time within the clinical environment.

Shifts are 3-4 hours per week and can fit around your commitments. We need volunteers to help bake cakes throughout the day, with lunch from 11am-2pm, for dinner preparation from 4-7pm.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Various duties, including:

- Serving food
- Baking cakes
- Ensuring the tables are set and cleaned for meal times
- Making sure surfaces are clean and clear of clutter
- Help to prepare lunch and dinner for staff and guests

TIME COMMITMENT

Flexible and regular: usually 3-4 hours a week where possible.

A broad commitment of a year volunteering with the charity is desirable.

EXPERIENCE & TRAINING

You'll be required to complete several online mandatory training modules including Basic Food Hygiene.

QUALITIES REQUIRED

We're looking for someone who is approachable and friendly, with a passion for food, baking and cooking.
